

Argumentation Network of the Americas

2021 Inaugural Event - "From Pole to Pole" (argnet.org)

August 5 (Eastern time)

10:45 Opening remarks

11:00 "Normative coherence insufficiency: Why does it not fully justify?"

Lucas Moreschi Paulo (Commentary: Katharina Stevens)

12:10 "On the legitimacy of the argumentum ad hominem in philosophical argumentation: Arguing with people is the point"

Michael A. Yong-Set (Commentary: Julder Gómez)

14:00 Keynote: "Political conflict and public deliberation" Fernando Atria

16:00 "Self-deliberation and the tripartite nature of argumentation theory"

Hareim Hassan (Commentary: Antonia Larraín)

17:10 Info session

August 6 (Eastern time)

11:00 "Arguing with children: Exploring problems of charity and strawmanning"

Anjali Bauri (Commentary: Cristián Santibáñez)

12:10 "An epistemic relativist approach to the deep disagreement paradox"

Hugo Mota (Commentary: David Frank)

14:00 Keynote: "Hear, Hear!, Here argument: A Case for Hearing/Seeing/Feeling Argument in a Variety of Locations" Catherine Palczewski

16:00 "Experiments in legal argumentation"

Guilherme de Almeida and Barbara Cintra (Commentary: Christopher Tindale)

17:10 "Are victim impact statements reasonable in sentencing?"

Kate Kraft (Commentary: Isaac Reis)

Register to receive Zoom link through <https://bit.ly/3jXInBz> or argnet.org